

Art Attack!

Today we all went to the computer suite because we were going to do some art with Mrs Coombes and Mandy.

First we did a sketch in a grid of ourselves. We had to draw ourselves doing something we enjoyed doing. Charlie drew himself swinging on a rope into the water. Rachel C was swinging on a swing and Paige was sitting on the couch with her guinea pig. I (Mia) drew myself racing on my scooter. I (Elena) was riding my bike. A little while later we had to paint our background either hot (yellow) or cold (blue). We did this using a roller. It was really fun and we felt like real artists!
